Peter Pan

I can't think she is gone. Tinkerbell, Tink, where are you? Who's there? Is anyone there? What! (To Tink) The Indians were defeated and Wendy and the Boys have been captured by the Pirates? I'll rescue her! I'll rescue her! What? Oh, that's just my medicine. Poisoned? Nonsense! Who could have poisoned it? I promised Wendy to take it and I'm going to, as soon as I've sharpened my dagger. Why, Tink, you've drunk my medicine! What's the matter with you? It was poisoned! You drank it to save my life. Tink. Dear... Tink... your're dying? Your light is growing faint, and if it goes out that means you're dead. Your voice is so low I can scarcely hear what you're saying. You say you think... you think you could get well again if... if... if what Tink? If children believed in fairies. (To audience) Do you believe? Say quick that you believe. If you believe, clap your hands!

Captain Hook from Peter Pan

Split me infinitives, but 'tis me hour of Triumph! Peter killed at last and all the boys are about to walk the plank. At last, I've reached me peak! All mortals envy me- no little children love me. I'm, told they play at Peter Pan, and that the strongest always chooses to be Peter. They force the baby to be Hook. THE BABY! Blimey, that will be no more! The strongest of all boys will always choose to be me!

John

Peter, you can really fly? Could you teach us to fly? Could you teach us to jump on the wind's back and away we'll go!?! Instead of sleeping in our silly beds we might be flying about saying funny things to the stars! How do we do it? Think lovely thoughts? Think lovely thoughts! Fishing... picnics... sailing... PRESENTS!!! And away we goooooooooo!!!!!!!!!!!!

Pirate

Can I talk like a pirate? Ay, matie! Avast! Ahoy! Aye-aye, I can! Shiver me timbers! I can talk like a pirate better than any lily-livered, jelly-legged sea-goer that ever there once was! I says whatever I've got to say in a pirate way and if any bilge-sucking buccaneer says I don't, I'll cleave him to the brisket! I swear on Davy Jones' Locker, to be a true blue pirate you've got to be able to load a cannon and fire it- but most important you've got to talk like a pirate!
